

designfordesign.net

AMIT SHRIVASTAVA-RESUMÉ

Summary: Designer with exceptional skills in print, Web, and motion graphics seeks position with top company as a graphic designer and media developer.

Skills:

- Develop professionally printed graphics from concept through prepress
- Help corporations build identity through logo design and consistent visual messaging
- Design websites to allow established companies to engage and keep online customers
- Experienced in the following software: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, StreamLine, Acrobat, Premiere, and After Effects; Macromedia Freehand MX, Flash MX and ActionScript, Dreamweaver MX and HTML and JavaScript, Director and Lingo; SoundEdit, QuarkXPress, FontLab, BBEEdit, ImageReady, Fetch, FTP Voyager, and Microsoft Office.

Experience: Print and Web Designer, Giordano+Kearfott Design, Seattle - November 2003 to present
Responsibilities include conceptualization, design, file preparation and project management for client-facing work. Projects focus on corporate identity, marketing collateral, packaging, mailers, print ads, and presentations, as well as web design, optimization, and development.

Freelance Designer - June 2002 to present
Clients include Opentable.com, Painsolvers.com, Dfxcru.com, Elisa Cicinelli Wedding Photography, Vantage Management Resources, and Michael Bernard Staging. Responsibilities have included creating as well as redesigning web sites to improve marketability and increase ease of use. Other projects have included designing corporate identity collateral, media kits, ads, and promotional material.

Design Intern, Noise 13, San Francisco - June to August 2003
Responsibilities included assisting the art director in brainstorming, research, and conceptualization, as well as executing design work in projects related to print and web.

Web Intern, Conscious Design and Photography, San Francisco - January to May 2003
Responsibilities included conceptualization and design for various Web sites, creating comps, writing HTML code and JavaScript, and site maintenance.

Work Study Student, Academy of Art College, San Francisco - January 2001 to December 2002
In the New Media department, managed the student gallery, updated databases in both digital and print form, and provided administrative support.

Lead Graphic Designer, Spectr@Net, New Delhi - November 1999 to November 2000
Responsibilities included managing and updating a live web site on a daily basis, coordinating the efforts of the design department and leading a group of designers.

Awards:

- At the Academy of Art Spring Show, received awards for Best In Show, Best Print Design (Faculty Choice), and Best Print Design (Student Choice) for a print project titled "Postcards to Myself," 2003
- Received the Social Service Award for Brotherhood from the University of Delhi, 1999

Education: Academy of Art College, bachelor of fine arts degree, August 2003; major: new media; GPA: 3.2

The British Institute, certificate in cartooning, May 2000

University of Delhi, bachelor's degree in business, May 1999; major: marketing management

PRINT IDENTITY INTERNET